

Customer Information Privacy Principles

Classic Asset Management, LLC views protecting its customers' private information as a top priority and, pursuant to the requirements of the Gramm-Leach Bliley Act, the Firm has instituted policies and procedures to ensure that customer information is kept private and secure.

Except as required or permitted by law, we do not share confidential information about you with nonaffiliated third parties. In the unlikely event there were to be a change in this fundamental policy that would permit additional disclosures of your confidential information, we will provide written notice to you, and you will be given an opportunity to direct us as to whether such disclosure is permissible.

Customer Information We Collect: We collect and develop personal information about you, and some of that information is nonpublic personal information ("Customer Information"). The essential purpose for collecting Customer Information is to provide and service the financial products and services you obtain from our Firm. The categories of Customer Information collected by us depend upon the scope of the engagement with us and are generally described below. As an investment adviser, we collect and develop Customer Information about you in order to provide investment advisory services. Customer Information we collect includes:

- Information we receive from you on financial inventories through consultation with our representatives. This Customer Information may include personal and household information such as income, spending habits, investment objectives, financial goals, statements of account, and other records concerning your financial condition and assets, together with information concerning employee benefits and retirement plan interests, wills, trusts, mortgages and tax returns.
- Information developed as part of financial plans, analyses or investment advisory services.
- Information concerning investment advisory account transactions, such as wrap account transactions.
- Information about your financial products and services transactions with us.

Data Security: We restrict access to Customer Information to those representatives and employees who need the information to perform their job responsibilities within our Firm. We maintain agreements, as well as physical, electronic and procedural securities measures that comply with federal regulations to safeguard Customer Information about you.

Use And Disclosure Of Customer Information To Provide Customer Service For Your Accounts: To administer, manage and service customer accounts, process transactions and provide related services for your accounts, it is necessary for us to provide access to Customer Information within our Firm and to nonaffiliated companies such as Fintegra Financial Solutions, other investment advisers, other broker-dealers, trust companies, custodians and insurance companies. We may also provide Customer Information outside of our Firm as permitted by law, such as to government entities, consumer reporting agencies or other third parties in response to subpoenas.

Former Clients: If you close an account with our Firm, we will continue to operate in accordance with the principles stated in the Notice.

Requirements Of Federal Law: In November of 1999, Congress enacted the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act ("GLBA"). The GLBA requires certain financial institutions, including broker-dealers and investment advisers, to protect the privacy of Customer Information. To the extent a financial institution discloses Customer Information to nonaffiliated third parties other than as permitted or required by law, customers must be given the opportunity and means to opt out (or prevent) such disclosure. Please note that we do not disclose Customer Information to nonaffiliated third parties except as permitted or required by law (e. g., disclosures to service your account or to respond to subpoenas).

Customers who have questions about these Privacy Principles or have a question about the privacy of their customer information should call Mike Young at 701-234-0103 or e-mail him at myoung@finstrat.com.

These Privacy Principles apply to individuals, and we reserve the right to change these Privacy Principles, and any of the policies or procedures described above, at any time without prior notice. These Privacy Principles are for general guidance and do not constitute a contract or create legal rights and do not modify or amend any agreements we have with our customers.
